

JESSE & SUSAN QUINN FAMILY BIBLE

Circa Early 1800's

Date: Friday, April 10, 2009
Transcribed by: T. Allen Quinn

Our family bible is in fair condition especially given its age. The bible is currently privately held by Kim Peacock in Raleigh, NC and has been rebound to aid in its preservation. Thanks to Kim for taking such good care of the bible handed down to her after her grandmother's death.

There are lost pages of all variety as a matter only of being nearly 200 years old. The original front cover was missing when I first examined the bible in April of 2009. The back cover was present, but was not attached to the rebound edition and it appears to have a few pages fused to the back binding page. The rebound bible is missing the following individual books along with what the original bible publisher notes describe as pages that should have been present:

- First Pages of Publication Information
- First Pages or Table of Contents
- Pages of Family History
- Parts Of Hebrews
- All Of James
- All Of 1 Peter
- All Of 2 Peter
- All Of 1 John
- All Of 2 John
- All Of 3 John
- All Of Jude
- All Of Revelation
- Any Subsequent Pages

Inside the bible there were 4 pages that bore hand written information. These pages were after the weights and measures pages that separated the Old Testament from the New Testament.

In the forthcoming pages you will find the births, deaths and marriage pages with a transcription to immediately follow. Parts of the pages with the transcriptions are intentionally left blank in an effort to keep the pages corresponding to their transcriptions.

Cemeteries and Gravestones

Many gravestones exist in the Jesse Quinn Cemetery location both inside and outside of the old dilapidated fence. In 2009, I unearthed the Susan Quinn headstone on the west side of the fence in the adjoining pasture area as I was shuffling around and noticed the alabaster white of the headstone beneath the ground's surface.

A kind and warm thank you should be conveyed to Mr. Rouse Ivey for his assistance and introduction to Mr. Jerry Grady, the property owner. The physical address is 575 Beautancus Road, Mount Olive, North Carolina and is in Duplin County.

As the map above depicts there is another cemetery identified 2500 feet NNW on Beautancus Road that I identify here as the Jesse Brown Quinn cemetery. This cemetery is maintained by our cousin A.D. Quinn who lives at 778 Beautancus Road, or just WNW of the location. A.D. and Mr. Rouse were unaware that the cemetery on Mr. Grady's property was the final resting place for any Quinn's, or Jernigans. The cemetery is locally known as the Old Shine cemetery, but the Quinn's predate the Shine & other Jernigan family members interred here.

Jesse Brown Quinn was the son of Ziphia Brown and Jesse Quinn, Sr., his first wife. Susan Jernigan was the second wife of Jesse Quinn, Sr. and their son Watson Franklin Quinn is the half brother of Jesse Brown Quinn.

There are many old Quinn & Jernigan cemeteries on Beautancus Road and Red Hill Road which at the intersection of Summerlin's Crossroads as you travel east toward Summerlin's Cross Roads on Beautancus Road the road's name changes to Red Hill Road. Also traveling back towards Mount Olive the name again changes names to County Line Road as you cross over into Wayne County, North Carolina. The road is further identified as SR (State Road) 1306.

The discovery of this cemetery could not have been accomplished without some very old cemetery survey notes for Duplin County that were prepared by Lillian & Pearl Houston. Thanks to both of you for the many years of hard work tramping through the mud, weeds, woods and briar patches.

There is no copyright assigned to these images, they are contributed to the NC Archive in Raleigh, North Carolina as a part of an ongoing effort to keep family records of historical, or cultural value in the public domain.
