DECEMBER MEETING

Our December meeting was a Christmas Party at the home of June Beason on December 13. We had a wonderful time with all of the goodies that everyone brought and a gift exchange. There was no business meeting, however, Yvonne Hatch brought up a problem with the finances. We had not yet received the money for the fees for the Senior Citizens for the Everton Seminar from Wayne Community College. If we do not receive it soon, we will have no money in our account. Elliott Futrell offered to call the college, check into it and get back with Yvonne.

FEBRUARY 8TH MEETING

In February we are having a special Heirloom Meeting. We are asking those members who would like, to bring a family heirloom and tell us about it. If you would like to do this, please talk to Frances Andrews after the meeting or call her at 658-2674. It should be very interesting for all of us so please consider sharing your heirlooms with us. We will be meeting at Wayne Co. Public Library Auditorium again at 2:00pm.

HELP

Frances Andrews is asking for help with programs. If you know of any speakers or have any ideas for a program, please contact her as soon as possible as she needs ideas for March, April, May & June.

June Beason is asking if anyone has any articles to submit to the newsletter for printing. We are running short of articles and need your help. If you have something, please contact June Beason at the meeting or at 778-8527 or the newsletter co-ordinator, Mary Spiron at submitted by William H. Chandler

The object of this sketch is to arrange in chronological order as much history as I have been able to collect of the ancestors of my maternal grandparents, Silas and Sarah Holloman.

I have not been able to trace the ancestry to the first who came from England but know they were of English decent. In reading Baptist history, I find that Roger Williams was Baptized in 1636 by one Ezekiel Holloman. I am not able to establish the lineage back to him but believe he was an ancestor as the name Ezekiel was a family name in their family. Then too, while neither of them ever united with any church, all the ancestors we have any account of were all Baptist. There was an ancestor, a Doctor Jenkins, also a Bettie Jenkins (who was either his wife or daughter), who came from England. I think he was Silas Holloman I's great-great grandfather. My mother (Judith Holloman) has told me of seeing a pair of tongs that was brought from England by Dr. Jenkins. They were in the possession of great Aunt Annie McLendon at her death.

Grandfather and grandmother were first cousins. I do not know who her maternal grandparents were but think her grandmother was Judith Wimbally. Grandfathers grandparents were Benton Moore and Easter Barnes. I know only of one child born to them, Annie Moore. As they were cousins, their grandparents were Silas Holloman I and Jane (Gleuhan, Glavhan, Glavghan or Glaughan). They had several children, but only know the names of three: Jerry - Ezekiel - Silas Holloman II.

Silas Holloman I and Jane (Glaughan, Glavhan, Glaughan, or Glavghan)
Children: Jerry - Ezekiel - Silas II

Jerry Holloman - Do not know who he married but know he had a son by the name of Eli Holloman.

Ezekiel Holloman - married Jerusha King. (I think her mother was Judith Wimbally). Ezekiel lived in N.C. I do not know how long he lived there, but he was living there in 1821. Children were: Dick, Malachi, John, Ezekiel, Judith, Annie, and Sarah (born in ? , who was my grandmother) - I do not know who the boys married but know that Judith and annie married brothers by the name of Bass. Judith Bass and husband moved to Ala. After he died, she married a Jetson Green. Sarah - married her cousin Silas Holloman III.

Silas Holloman II - married Annie Moore, the daughter of Easter and Benton Moore. Children were: Benton, Gillis, Silas, Easter, Penelope Moore, and Annie.

Benton and Gillis - have no record of who they married

Easter - married a Waters - she weighed over two hundred pounds - when a catamount attacked her, she crushed it to death under her knees.

Penelope Moore - never married - was called Aunt Penny.

Annie - youngest - married Dennis McKendon - they lived in Kershaw County S.C. in 1882 - Children were: Hampton, Jesse, Gillis and Annie Silas III - born Oct. 19, 1790 - he married Sarah Holloman (born in 1796) - daughter of Silas III's Uncle Ezekiel - which made them first cousins.

SILAS HOLLOMAN III AND SARAH HOLLOMAN

They ran away and married in May 1821 and settled near Timmonsville, Darlington Co., S.C. His occupation was that of a farmer and owned slaves. He also held the office of Magistrate several years. Among his slaves was a faithful and much loved servant by the name of Sarah. Aunt Sallie or Mammy, as we children called her, was given to my mother (Judith) when she married, John Hood Wilson. After negroes were freed, she refused to leave them and moved to Texas with them. She helped raise us children and was living with a married sister of mine and helping to raise her children when she died at the age of 85, Grimes Co., Bedias, Texas in April 1880. After the death of Sarah Holloman in Jan. 19, 1851, Silas married a Mahala Vaun, Vann, or Vaughn. I have no date of this marriage. There was one child born to them but have no more information about the child. His second wife died before his death. He died Feb. 5, 1857. He was on a visit to see relatives in N.C. when he died. The home where he and Sarah lived was still standing in 1910. It had been remodeled and a second story had been added. He and Sarah are buried in the cemetery at Gun Branch near their old home in S.C. Children were: Maria - Judith - Penelope Moore - Sarah Jane - Elisabeth - Mary Catherine - Silas and Jerusha Holloman.
